Information on the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

Dear Sir or Madam

The protection of your personal data is important to us. We, therefore, process your data exclusively on the basis of prevailing statutory provisions (General Data Protection Regulation [GDPR], Telecommunications Act [TKG] 2003). In accordance with the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), we would like to inform you that we only process and store your data for the purpose of conducting business. The first name and last name of the contact person(s), mobile phone number, e-mail address and, if required, the address are stored as personal data.

Our basic data categories are as follows:

1. Name/Company
2. Industry/Professional title
3. Contact person(s)
4. Contact details: telephone, postal address, in part mobile phone number, e-mail address
5. Company register number
6. Bank account(s)
7. VAT ID numbers

You have voluntarily provided us with data about yourself, and we process this data on the basis of your consent for the following purposes:

1. Providing support to you as a customer, supplier or interested party
2. For mailings, e.g. concerning offers or product information, as well as all correspondence in the context of existing business relationships.

You may revoke this consent at any time by sending an e-mail to datenschutz@breitenfeld.at, provided that there are no legal requirements that necessitate its storage. Should you withdraw your consent, we shall delete your data within 7 days.

We hereby expressly point out that we forward your data to third parties as part of the handling of business processes (order processing, tax advice/balance sheets) – to ensure the handling of current and future business relationships.

Notes & legal information:

In principle, you have the right to the disclosure of information held about you, its rectification, erasure, restriction, data portability and your objection thereto. Please get in touch with us. In this regard, we also refer to the responsible business organisation (Chamber of Commerce)
